

1 Rule 7.4. Communication of Fields of Practice.

2

3 (a) A licensed paralegal practitioner must communicate the fact that the licensed paralegal
4 practitioner practices only in particular fields of law.

5 (b)-(d) Reserved.

6

7

8 Comment

9 [1] Paragraph (a) of this Rule permits a licensed paralegal practitioner to indicate areas of 10 practice in communications about the licensed paralegal practitioner's services. If a licensed
11 paralegal practitioner practices only in certain fields or will not accept matters except in a
12 specified field or fields, the licensed paralegal practitioner is required to so indicate. A licensed
13 paralegal practitioner is generally permitted to state that the licensed paralegal practitioner is a
14 "specialist," practices a "specialty" or "specializes in" particular fields, but such communications
15 are subject to the "false and misleading" standard applied in Rule 7.1 to communications
16 concerning a licensed paralegal practitioner's services.

17 [2]-[3] Reserved.